From August 23rd - 24th, I will be participating in a 5k walk/run event to help raise money for the Ramapo-Bergen Animal Refuge (RBARI), a non-profit animal shelter that focuses on saving the lives of local dogs and cats in need.

100% of the proceeds I raise will go directly to the care of homeless dogs and cats and will help RBARI to continue to keep their doors and intake open during this uncertain time. RBARI takes in surrenders from our community, visits local animal control facilities twice a week to help reduce the rate of euthanizing in NJ, and help with low-cost spay/neuter for in-need communities. They regularly take on urgent rescue cases such as hoarding cases, puppy mill survivors, emergency medical cases, and senior animals, and have helped to provide second chances for thousands of animals in need.

If you would like to join me in being a rescue warrior, and helping to ensure that RBARI can continue to be here for the community, and for the animals who need them most, you can click here to sponsor my participation in this walk/run. Every sponsorship will be matched up to $5,000 with the help of a matching donation.

Thank you for helping me make a difference!
